

What difference will it make to the families of our pupils?

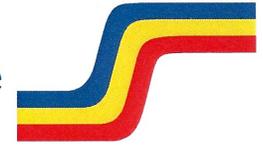

It will improve our communication with families, strengthen our partnerships with parents/carers and help us to support them more effectively.

What can you do to help Fountaindale achieve the award?

- Keep up-to-date with what we have been doing by reading the updates on our website www.fountaindale.notts.sch.uk
- Come along to any meetings or events that we organise, if you can.
- Complete any questionnaires that we send out as honestly as you can.
- Agree to be interviewed as part of our Final Verification.

Fountaindale School

The Leading Parent Partnership Award

What is the Leading Parent Partnership Award (LPPA)?

The LPPA is a nationally recognised award achievable by schools who work very closely with the parents/carers of their pupils.

What will Fountaindale have to do to achieve the LPPA?

Schools have to work towards meeting ten different objectives before they can achieve the award (see inside this leaflet).

The assessment is made by an external advisor .

We hope to achieve the award by March 2014.

Fountaindale can show it is committed to working towards achieving the LPPA.

Fountaindale is a welcoming, communicative and friendly place for parents/carers.

Fountaindale promotes the awareness and participation of all groups of parents/carers in supporting their children's learning and developing their own learning.

Fountaindale makes and implements effective plans to achieve and maintain the LPPA.

Fountaindale provides parents/carers with relevant and user-friendly guidance and information to help them support their children's learning.

Fountaindale holds and actively promotes opportunities and events for parents/carers and their children to enjoy together.

Fountaindale evaluates its achievements against the LPPA and outlines its future plans.

Fountaindale produces and implements parent-friendly policies to establish effective home-school links and improve children's progress and positive participation in school.

Fountaindale provides good support for all parents/carers as their children leave the school.

Fountaindale provides a good induction for all new parents/carers.